

CRYPTO20 FACT SHEET

What is the portfolio objective?

CRYPTO20 tracks the top 20 cryptocurrency assets by market capitalization.

What assets does CRYPTO20 hold?

CRYPTO20 is an autonomously operated, tokenized cryptocurrency portfolio.

CRYPTO20 is a hybrid portfolio trading with an index strategy. The CRYPTO20 (C20) tokens are directly tied to the underlying assets with a novel liquidation option that can be exercised via the smart contract. This provides the safety net of a lower price bound.

CRYPTO20 offers instant diversification to the top 20 cryptocurrency assets by holding a single token. Existing tokens are tradable on exchange and no further tokens will be issued.

Important portfolio characteristics and risks

CRYPTO20 is invested in the top 20 cryptocurrencies by market capitalization, with weekly rebalancing. A maximum component weighting of 10% is utilized to prevent a single asset (and thus single source of risk) from dominating the portfolio.

In traditional financial markets, index funds have consistently outperformed the vast majority of managed funds since their inception. CRYPTO20 is analogous to such funds.

CRYPTO20 has a combination of parameters that ensure it has broad market exposure and acceptable turnover without allowing a single asset, and thus a single source of risk, to dominate. Index parameters for the portfolio were carefully determined via a structured data science approach. More detailed information is available in our white paper.

What costs can I expect to pay?

A flat annual fixed fee of 0.50%. Apart from exchange transaction fees, there are no exit fees nor brokerage fees.

Important information that should be considered before investing in the CRYPTO20 service

CRYPTO20 provides broad exposure to the cryptocurrency market.

Cryptocurrencies are volatile and it is possible to incur losses.

CRYPTO20 should be considered a long-term investment. The value of tokens may go down as well as up, and returns are not guaranteed.

Past performance is not necessarily an indication of future performance.

No further tokens will be issued post-ICO but tokens may still be purchased on an exchange.

Tokens acquired on secondary markets such as exchanges post-ICO will be valued by market demand.

A liquidation function exists in the smart contract. This will liquidate a token for the token's share of the underlying assets. The liquidation price is updated hourly.

Redeemed tokens are resold on exchange with the proceeds added back to the fund. This ensures that the total number of tokens remains fixed over time.

Does the performance information included in this fact sheet include management fees?

Yes, fund performance is net of the 0,5% per annum management fee. Fees are charged at 0.5% per annum on average portfolio net asset value.
